For: Urushiol Induced Contact Dermatitis

Statement in Support of Application for Patent Unintentionally Abandoned
Under 37 CFR 1.137(b)

1. I am Robert L. Knechtel, attorney registration number 36,845, attorney of record for the above-identified patent applicant. I am located in the Chicago, IL area.
2. The Examiner issued an Office Action on the above-identified application on June 16, 2000 in which certain claims were allowed, one claim was objected to, and a restriction requirement was requested for other claims (the restriction resulting from an amendment in the response to the first Office Action).
3. For strategic reasons, Applicant instructed me to delay filing the Office Action until the last day to do so. Therefore, with a request for three month extension of time pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a), the response would be due December 16, 2000, or December 18, 2000 because the 16th fell on a Saturday.
4. I was in New York on a business trip and due to poor weather conditions on both the east coast and in Chicago, was detained in New York until late on December 18, 2000. My flight (American Airlines flight 755) was originally scheduled to land at 7:50pm cst, plenty of time to file the document with the United States Postal Service, either the O'Hare Airport station (which is open until 9:00pm cst for express mail services) or the Chicago City station (which is open until midnight cst for express mail services). However, the flight, which took off on time, was delayed due to a storm in Chicago and did not land until 10:15pm cst. Because of the continuing storm, I was unable to reach the Chicago City station before the midnight deadline.

I respectfully request that the application be deemed to have been unintentionally abandoned under 37 CFR 1.137(b) and revived.

Under the penalty of perjury, I declare that the above statements are true and accurate.

Respectfully Submitted,

Robert L. Knechtel
Attorney for Applicant
